Incomprehensible

EDUCATION Minister Peterson is on weak grounds when he defends the use of foreign textbooks in B.C. schools with the excuse that Canadian textbooks per se are not necessarily free from criticism. Probably no school textbook written anywhere is so perfect as to be beyond criticism.

That is not the criterion. The heart of the matter is that Canadian children should in the main be taught via the rote of Canadian books. How else can the ethos of the country, its history and its point of view, its customs and traditions, be imparted to its rising generations?

There is room for ancillary textbooks so that a general awareness of other ways be absorbed, but these should be at a minimum.

By Mr. Peterson's own account the situation is far from that. Only 50 per cent of B.C. textbooks are of Canadian origin, the remainder coming from Britain and the United States. The British books represent but 7.4 per cent of the total and are appropriate because Canada has a British heritage and its institutions and history are inter-related.

Without prejudice to a friendly neighbor, however, the proportion of American textbooks, some 42 per cent in all, is far too much. Many of these books, also, refer to persons and events as "national" when as far as Canada is concerned they are not national at all. Canadian students are bound to be misled when brought up to such an extent on a diet of American influence which presents learning written from a distinctly foreign concept.

Few other countries in the world would permit its young people to be educated to such degree by books written or produced in another country

It is incomprehensible that the provincial gov ernment should not prefer Canadian textbooks written by Canadian authors, but instead should acquiesce so complacently in the indoctrination of its students by foreign authors.

Deplorable

VETERAN CCF member says the scene in the A legislature on Wednesday was one of the worst displays in his 21 years in the House. It must therefore have been strident and rowdy in excessive degree, for the James Bay institution has a poor record for calm and reasoned discussion.

One had hoped that the present session would see MLAs shouting like unruly children, as so often before, but apparently old habits stick.

That the whether was over conditions at arrives.

School for the Deaf is beside the point, although since one cabinet minister has a son there his views on the subject would seem to have verity. But if it had not sen this issue it would have been some other. Each side accused the other, in an impolite and interrupting squabble, of playing politics with a subject of grave human interest. By their behavior both were playing politics, otherwise they would have mined the situation with the earnestness it

This is not the way to carry out public business. The legislature lacks dignity, and that is the sad part

A Vice-Regal Visit

BY THE NATURE of things governors-general cannot be seen too frequently in all the reaches of so far-flung a country as Canada. Their presence at the centre of national events compels a permanent residence in Ottawa. Journeys to other parts are of necessity limited.

This will make the visit of Governor-General Vanier all the more interesting when he comes here in May, however. He is a very distinguished soldier and a picturesque personality to boot. Victorians got their first glimpse of him when he visited this area on his first vice-regal tour after assuming office in 1939, but have been denied closer acquaintance since

The governor-general will present a new color to the Royal Roads college at its graduation exercises, an annual ceremony of much local interest and one that will be enhanced by the attendance of General For the cadets it will be an occasion un-

This will complete the governor-general's tour of the three tri-services colleges, and happily it gives Victoria another opportunity to bid him welcome.

Poor Argument

A REPORT FROM Ottawa says "defence planners" make no secret of their opinion that the Bomarc hase at North Bay although fully equipped with missiles and electronically ready for action cannot be considered really operational until the missiles are fitted with nuclear warheads.

The military reasoning of these unidentified per-Calleding as a poor one; more are word than of military reasoning. For if the Bomarce were ever called into action, it surely would make title difference whether en uclear bombe exploded in the air or on the ground in northern Ordinate. It failbut that might reach heavily-populated areas, if any, as the result of ground-bursta as opposed to alribursta, would be of small account in the general hold.

Certainly this is not the oort of reasoning that should lead Canada to rush into trying to acquire michael every response while there yet remains a channel. Rob Man Of $20,000

Charge of using another man's driver's licence against Ernest David Herrin, HMCS New Glasgow, was dismissed by Magistrate William Ostler in city police court yesterday.

The dismissal came after a direct conflict of evidence between Herrin and Const. John Burdyny.

Const. Burdyny said that when he had stopped Herrin Dec. 2, 1961, Herrin had shown him a driver's licence belonging to Hendrik Van Boven, 3615 Richmond.

HAMILTON, Ont. (UPI)—A north end tavern owner yesterday was assaulted and robbed of $20,000 by two bandits.

Nick Masney was returning from a bank with money to cash cheques for workers.

Police said the robbers hid in a garbage can and grabbed Masney before he was able to get out of his car.

Hamilton police had set up a dragnet but not stopped any suspects.

A DENIAL

"I don't suggest that the officer has fabricated evidence," the magistrate said, but there has been an unequivocal denial and the charge must be dismissed."

A woman found guilty of driving without a valid current licence, Mrs. Emma Juliana Kadar, 15 Lurline, drew a suspended sentence in Saanich court when she told Magistrate Ostler she had been driving a sick child to the doctor.

14,000 Join Militia Due to Army Course

OTTAWA (UPI) - Some 44,000 men have entered the Canadian Army militia as a result of the first two army survival training programs, and more than 1,300 men have joined the regular forces, army headquarters announced yesterday. Militin strength is now more than 62,000.

Without identifying the authorities, except to say that they are responsible for governing and policing the troubled Koote, nay area, the paper says the plan would see:

Destruction of the Freedomite stronghold of Krestova; foxeed migration of an estimated 2,000 men, women and children to the northern parts of western provinces and the Yukon and Northwest Territories; purchase of land, construction of houses and weifare services that would last for years; denial of freedom of movement and association.

WINNIPEG (CP) — Members of Winnipeg's Chinese community Thursday charged Prime Minister Diefenbaker with breaking a promise he made with them last November.

He said members of the com-nunity have written the prime ninister twice since Justice ninister Fulton said in the Commons Jan. 19 that investi-gations into possible irregu-larities in Chinese immigration would be continued.

YOUR HELP IS VITAL FOR THIS MUCH-NEEDED EXPANSION

THREE YEARS

For the first time in its history St. Joseph's, the hospital that has served our community since pioneer days, turns to us for help. The ever increasing total of admittances has made essential a new wing. This 115-bed expansion designed to hold 65 maternity beds and to relieve congestion in other departments is a vital part in the expanding hospital program our growing community demands. St. Joseph's asks us to do our part.

Total Cost of this Project is $2,700,000, of which we, the Citizens of Victoria, are asked to raise $350,000

Fourth Biennial Revisited

By INA D. D. UHTHOFF

A second visit to the Fourth Biennial of Canadian Painting allows one to concentrate on the less assertive works and to fully appreciate the finer points in the show as a whole.

There is a great deal of really significant painting in it as most of Canada's leading artists are represented and this year many new names have appeared whose work deserves to be better known.

It is such a large show that many of the paintings have not been hung.

The very large ones take up so much wall space that much good work is inevitably crowded out. It has been the policy in most "open" shows to limit the size of each painting, but in the 1961 Biennial of Canadian Painting there were no restrictions enforced.

One canvas that attracted

City Repeats Decision On Ambulance City health committee yesterday repeated its recent decision. There is a good deal of "gimmick" in many of the paintings—cement, sand, paper, enamel and rubber-base household paint take the place of the costly tubes of artists colors of former days. In the midst of all this striving for new sensations, Joe Plaskett, Frank Palmer, Ghitta Caiserman and Leon Bellefleur go quietly on their way, developing their own personal approaches.

Socialist Official To Speak Here

City health committee yesterday repeated its recent decision not to consider starting a city-operated ambulance service.

Discussion was sparked by a letter from the Silver Threads Service claiming an injured pensioner was "pestered" for payment by the driver of a private ambulance. But members of the health committee did not change their minds. They were told two weeks ago that it would cost the city some $50,000 a year to operate its own ambulance.

Jack Shadbolt's "Dark Expelled" demonstrates his mastery of color. Pierre Gendron's "Archipel" glows warmly, and Maxwell Bates' powerful Studio Interior" shows a good deal of experimentation in the use of paint.

Gold River Road Will Stay Closed Unless New Legislation Introduced

In the brief he presented to the committee, Mr. Sheldon emphasized the difference between a tree farm licence and Crown grant land such as the ERT property. "Despite current public belief, roads constructed on Crown grant lands by the owner (the ERT road falls in this category) are not automatically subject to public use," he said.

OTTAWA (CP) — A showdown is shaping up in the crucial jurisdictional conflict in Newfoundland between two of the most influential unions in the Canadian Labor Congress.
A new test of labor unity exploded into the open Thursday after a CLC vice-presidential committee failed to get the 65.
600-member Carpenters Broth erhood to accept a one-year ceasefire in its feud with the International Woodworkers of America over the right to represent Newfoundland loggers.
Indications are the showdown will take place at next month's national CLC convention in Van-

UNITY THREAT

UNITY THREAT

If the jurisdictional scrap erupts on the convention floor—as it seems bound to now—it will face organized labor with a major threat to unity, perhaps the most serious threat since the CLC was formed in 1956.

The 35,000-member IWA, a major union power on the west coast, has charged the Carpenters Union with raiding its jurisdiction in the Newfoundland woods—an off-nee that carries the heaviest sanction labor can impose, suspension from the labor congress and possibly expulsion.

bor congress and pository expansion.

By rejecting the CLC peace plan, the Carpenters Union challenged the congress to rule on the validity of the IWA raiding charge, a decision stayed off so far by the congress.

"The IWA has charged us with raiding and it's up to them to prove it," said Peter Terziek, international treasurer of the Carpenters Union.

LONG BEFORE

"We were in Newfoundland organizing loggers long before the IWA appeared there. If any raiding occurred in Newfound-land, it occurred when the IWA land, it occurred when the IWA moved in after our pioneering efforts began to pay off."

The IWA called a bitter strike against a major Newfoundland pulp company in 1959—a strike marked by violence. The walk-out was broken when the provincial government passed a law barring the IWA from the island and setting up an independent union.

Ontario cancer authorities take issue with this last statement. They say no figures are available on which it could be based.

Only a controlled study like B.C.'s, with all doctors reporting cases, can show incidence—that is, how many cases among how many women.
Ontario and other provinces haven't this information—but in the last 15 years Ontario's death rate for cancer of the uterus has dropped 30 per cent.

"We also know that the number of women coming under early treatment of can-cer of the cervix has increased tremendously in the last few years," said Dr. Cosbie.

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy Thursday sent Congress a large package of proposals to protect the consumer.

In recommendations that would cost about $19,000,000 a year in addition to programs already covered in budget requests, he urged steps to assure:

1. Sale, effective drugs for the ailing.

2. Beauty aids that won't burn a lady's skin.

3. TV sets that will get more channels.

4. Instalment contracts that reveal the true rate of interest.

5. Wider inspection to bar uning for safety before marketing. As for drugs, Kennedy said 9,000 new ones developed in the last quarter-century have saved consideration on some of these consideration on some of these consideration on some of these tables.

Legislation already is under consideration on some of these consideration on some of these consideration on some of these tables.

With a bow to housewives. Kennedy up of the same than manufacturers be required to show that a drug is effective, as well as safe, before marketing. As for drugs, Kennedy said 9,000 new ones developed in the last quarter-century have saved countless lives. But many had not lived up to sponsors' claims. He urged, among other things, that manufacturers be required to show that a drug is effective, as well as safe, before marketing.

With a bow to housewives. Kennedy up to to show that a drug is effective, as well as safe, before marketing.

With a bow to housewives. Kennedy up of the same are highly complex. Job Training Act Historic-JFK

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Kennedy Thursday signed the manpower training bill he had given top domestic priority and hailed it as perhaps the most important full-employment legislation in 15 years.

The new law, enacted only two days ago by Congress, authorized a three-year, $435,000,000 program designed to take up to 1,000,000 Americans off relief rolls by training them for new jobs.

Unemployed workers, forced into idleness by automation or disappearing markets, will be given free vocational schooling or on-the-job training for as much as a year.

The president called the program "perhaps the most significant legislation in the area of employment since the historic Employment Act of 1946."

Garden Notes

Teen-Agers Verboten

By M. V. CHESNUT, PRMS

It isn't a very good idea to go stirring or cultivating the soil in the strawberry patch just when the plants are coming into bloom. With all our mild climate, it is a fairly common thing to get ground frosts during the critical flowering period, reputally in low-lying areas, and the increased radiation of warmth from nearly-stirred soil makes this memace all the greater.

Most strawberry beds need some attention in early spring, though, especially when a wet fall and winter has packed and consolidated the surface stoo the autumn cleanup, or when alternate frosts and thaws have heaved the plants almost out of the ground. It behoves us, then, to get this work done as far in advance of the flowering period as possible.

After the removal of dead leaves from the plants and elearing away any rubbish which may have blown in and accumulated through the winter, the surface between the plants and between the rows should be pricised over lightly and shallowly with a digging fork, at the same time acratching in a dressing of any good cupful per square yard.

The pricking over is, of course, to break up the crust and allow air to penetrate to the roots, and the fertiliner is to get the plants away to a good start. In most cases, this is all you can do for your plants at the moment, but one exception to this treatment is when the bed was mulched with short straw manure after the clean up last fail.

In this case, the sell surface should be fairly loose and openthanks to the mulch—and needn't be touched at all. Just shake up and leosen the manure mulch with the fork, and this should do the plants nicely until the time comes to bed them down with straw.

If you set out strawberry plants last fall, they should be looked over, carefully for any evidence of heaving or lifting during our frusty speak, and any such plants should be firmed down with the feet before pulling up a little earth around them with the hoe.

When a fellow buys and sets out some fine strawberry plants, he wants to start enjoying the fruits of his enterprise as soon as possible.

He may be drooling over the prospects of great bowls of home-grown strawberries and cream this summer, but unfortunately there are some pretty rigid rules governing the cropping of newly-planted strawberries.

If the plants were set out is the late summer last year, or even up to Sept. 15, you're home-free, and they may be allowed to crop to their heart's content. The crop won't be as hig as next year's yield, but it should be pretty good, and in any case it needn't be restricted artificially.

With plants set out last fall after the middle of September, a small "sampling" crop may be taken and the plants allowed to bear, say, one trues of fruit per plant. The roots can handle this much work without hurting the prospects for future cropping statement planted this spring, though, are strictly verboten. Their flower stalks should be anipped off as fast as they appear, for we don't want any "teen-age mothers here. By throwing all their strength into building up a good root system and strong crowns, a heavy crop in 1963 is assured.

We're Party to Party Party

PALM BEACH. Fia Of all the communities in the United States, there is probably none as social as Paim Beach, Florida. This sundrenched. diamond-studded. Rolls-Royce-clogged stretch of real suinte has more cocktall and dinner parties per capita than any other town in the free world.

There is a society editor for every five families in the colony, as opposed to the national average of one for every 100 families.

But Palm Beach is not social just for the sake of being social. All the social activity down here has to do with raising money for some charity. It is very gauche to have a party for the sake of a party, and therefore everyone is in the business of giving a party for a cause. a party for a cause.

It's gotten so two people can't have breakfast together without making a donation to an orphanage.

As a matter of fact, while there is no shortage of parties and balls in Paim Beach, there is a shortage of diseases to give them for. The oldtimers in Palm Beach have all the good diseases tied up. The first families of this city have a monopoly on heart, cancer, cerebrad palsy, and mental health, and a new-comer who is trying to crash society down here has very few illnesses left to choose from.

The other day we asked four friends to have lunch with us, and one of them, Mrs. Paul Ames, asked. "What's it for?"

"Nothing." we said. "We just want to have lunch."

"You can't just have lunch with-out a reason," she said. "If you can come up with a good disease we'll accept."

We called the local Palm Beach hospital and asked them if there were any diseases that there hadn't been benefits held for this season.
"You're calling awfully late," the woman faid. "The only thing we still have open is malaria and yellow

"Is arthritis taken?" we asked. "It was one of the first to go. We can't give you diabetes or hay sever, either."

"Well, is there some hospital I could raise money for?"
"We have an animal shelter in Cheyenne, Wyoming, that hasn't been spoken for."

"Okay, I'll give a luncheon for that, What do I do now?" "You have to form a committee." "What for?"

"What for"
"To get your wife's picture in the newspaper. Why else would you want to give a benefit"
"That's true," we said.
"Just call the local newspaper and they'll send a photographer over in 10 minutes."

We formed a committee consisting of our wite as honorary chairman. Mrs Armes as program chairman, and Hrs. Howard Gould of Cincinnati as decorations chairman.

After the newspaper photographers took their pictures, we took the women and their husbands to lunch in the coffee shop of the Palm Beach Towers where we all were staying.

Beach Towers where we all were staying.

Unfortunately, the coffee shop was very crowded and we had to share our table with three couples whom we didn't know.

But it worked out fine, because the three couples such pledged $1,000 for our animal shelter in Cheyenne and our party in turn bought $3,000 in raffle tickets which they were selling for a retired lifeguards' home in Scattle.

Ren Randall, whom I last new twisting in Madrid with his dancer-wife, tells me he will spend "one year in Hollywood." but he did not say with or without his wife.

I asked dance Leigh, "are you really opposed to having your daughter play the girl in Forty Pounds of Trouble?" Husband Tony Curtis is the star and producer. "She's only six," explained Janet. "I want her to have a normal childhood. If later she wants to be an actress, that's all right."

Pully Bergen was chatting with me when a photographer asked me "is that Tassemy Grissen?" Polly overheard and said coldly, "No, it is not Tammy Grimes." She told me of when she was coming back from Palm Springs and did not bother to use makeup or wear any glamor clothes "'No one will recognize me," I said to my husband. We stopped at a drive-in, and when the wait reas gave Freddie the check she turned to me and said, "May I have your autograph, Miss Bergen?"

Eskimo Voting 'Not Intelligent'

OTTAWA (CP)—Liberal senators greeted with a mixed reception Thursday a bill which west Territories to the federal would give Sekimos in the eastern Arctic the right to vote in federal elections.

The bill, given second reading approval in principle—in the Manitoba), a cabinet minister under Mackenzie King, said most Eskimos are unable to speak English and wouldn't be able to cast an intelligent vote. It had been a mistake to grant the franchise to "ignorant" Eskimos in the Mackenzie River riding. The error should foot be extended.

Senator Arthur Roebuck L—Ontario), who described himself as "a fundamental Liberal," said he could not agree with the principles—involved in Senator Crerar's remarks.
